

McKenzie River

The beautiful forested McKenzie River is a post-card-perfect Oregon stream. Born high in the Cascade Mountains, its crystal clear waters wind their way through narrow gorges and over stunning waterfalls before settling down to a swift and rocky mountain river. The rapids are numerous but small, creating an active and splashy, but relatively easy rafting adventure. With opportunities for mountain biking, rafting, fishing, waterfall viewing and riverside dining the McKenzie River is the perfect playground for a few hours or a whole day.

Half & one-day fares are due in full at time of reservation. Once you've made your reservation we'll send you additional trip information including a personal packing list. Cancellations are accepted up until 10:00 a.m. the day prior to your trip. A $10/person cancellation fee may apply.

Half-Day Trips

Half-day trips are offered in the mornings on Tuesdays and Thursdays and in the afternoons every other day of the week. Round trip transportation is included from Bend, Sisters or Black Butte Ranch or you can meet us at the river. From our launch site at Paradise Campground, we enjoy the swift and rocky but easy rapids for 2.5 to 3 hours before reaching our take-out between McKenzie Bridge and Blue River. Lunch is not provided, but snacks and sodas are available during the shuttle.

Full-Day Trips

Full-day trips include transportation from Bend, Sisters and Black Butte or you can meet us at Paradise Campground on the river. The first hour and a half is fast-paced but easy rafting ending at McKenzie Bridge where we enjoy a delicious river-side lunch. From here we float another 3 hours to Blue River with the river delivering a few larger rapids but generally relaxing its pace, allowing plenty of time to take in the stunning scenery.
